- 2.1 Charges will be set out in the Order; if not, the current standard charges of Colt apply. If a third party is required for the delivery of a service, the third party costs, which are incorporated in the charges, are subject to survey of the relevant site or review or confirmation by the third party. Such survey, review or confirmation may result in a change to the costs. Any such change will be passed on to Customer in its entirety as part of the charges and Colt shall notify Customer of any such revision to the charges before the service becomes capable of acceptance. In the case of any increase, the Customer shall either (a) inform Colt that it accepts the increased charges or (b) terminate the Order (or relevant part thereof) by giving Colt notice in compliance with clause 9.4. Following its notice of the increase to the charges, Colt shall not be obliged to carry out any further activity in relation to the Order unless and until Customer exercises option (a).
- 2.2 All charges stated on the Order will be exclusive of VAT unless specified otherwise.
- 2.3 Colt may charge Customer interest on overdue sums at the highest of the two following rates: (i) the annual rate of 5% above the base lending rate of the European Central Bank from time to time and (ii) three times the French legal

- 2.4 Colt may revise the charges for the provision of services agreed in the Order at any time after the expiry of the Initial Term providing Customer with 30 days' notice prior to the revision taking effect. Notwithstanding the provisions of Article 1120 of French Civil Code, Customer shall be deemed to have accepted the revised charges unless, in case of an increase, Customer has terminated the affected Order(s) by giving Colt written notice, to expire at the end of that 30 day period.
- 2.5 Charges may be changed at any time in order to comply with any change of mandatory law or regulations.

3. Payment

- 3.1 Payment shall be due 30 days after the date of invoice.
- 3.2 Colt will send invoices to Customer by email or in an electronic format, unless Colt agrees with Customer to send invoices by post. The format of the invoice shall not affect Customer's obligation to make payment under clause 3.1 or Colt's rights under clauses 2.3 and 5.
- 3.3 Invoices are deemed accepted if not disputed, with detailed evidence of the dispute, within 30 days of the date of the invoice. If disputed, Customer must still pay the undisputed portion of the invoice by the due date.

In such a case Colt shall endeavour to resolve the problem and communicate a replacement RFU Date to the Customer and the service will be deemed accepted only in accordance with the same process as set out in the preceding sentence. However, if the Customer notifies Colt in writing on a second occasion (or on any subsequent occasion) of its reasonable belief that the service is not ready for use then either party may give notice of termination of the Order (or relevant part thereof) in accordance with clause 9.4.

Colt may require Customer to provide written evidence of its right to access such sites. If the RFU Date is delayed by more than 30 days beyond the issue of a "Task Delay Notification" (which is a Colt system generated email notifying the Customer of the delay), due to failure on the part of the Customer to provide Delivery Cooperation, then Colt may upon the expiry of such 30 day period (regardless of the Customer's inability to use the service due to such delay) at its sole discretion either terminate the Order or begin the Initial Term and start invoicing the monthly recurring charges.
- 6.3 If Colt accepts within its sole discretion to defer the delivery of service upon Customer's request, there shall be no change in the installation and service charges being incurred from the RFU Date. However if Colt is unable or unwilling to comply with such a request, it will promptly notify the Customer and if agreement is not reached within 5 calendar days of such notification on the timing of delivery and any changes to the charges, then Colt may in its sole discretion terminate the Order (or relevant part thereof) in accordance with clause 9.4 or begin the Initial Term and start invoicing the monthly recurring charges.
- 6.4 Property and title to Colt's equipment installed at Customer's or third party's site for the provision of service remain with Colt and Customer shall apply, and shall ensure any such third parties apply, reasonable care and comply with any reasonable instructions which Colt may issue in relation to it.

- 9.2 Upon Customer's request Colt may at its reasonable discretion agree to terminate (i.e. disconnect) a service before the end of the Initial Term, provided that the charges applicable until the end of the Initial Term shall be paid notwithstanding the earlier termination.
- 9.3 Either Party may terminate the Order in whole or in part immediately by giving notice by a registered letter with acknowledgement of receipt: (a) if the other Party breaches any material term of the Order (including non-payment of charges by Customer when due) and, fails to remedy the breach within 30 calendar days following the receipt of the formal notice to do so by a registered letter with acknowledgement of receipt, or (b) subject to and within the limits authorized by French law, including article L622-13 of the French Commercial Code, if the other Party is threatened to become insolvent, becomes insolvent or ceases business.

- 9.5 In the event of a termination by either Party under any of clauses 6.1, 6.2 or 6.3 Customer shall pay early termination charges comprising of the following: (a) charges which are equal to the fixed charges that would have been payable for the first twelve (12) months of the Initial Term had the order not been terminated (not including any charges already validly invoiced prior to termination which shall remain payable); and (b) the value of any other third party costs (to the extent that they relate to services to be provided within the Initial Term and after the expiry of such twelve (12) month period) which Colt has already incurred or committed to as at the date of termination. For the avoidance of doubt, these payment obligations are without prejudice to any claims for damages that either Party may have against the other.
