

These General Terms and Conditions (“GTC”) shall apply to the provision of any service and/or the sale of equipment by Colt to Customer. Customer business terms are expressly excluded.

Colt and Customer may be referred to collectively as (the “Parties”) and individually as a (“Party”).

1. Order and Term

1.1 This Order (“Order”) constitutes a service contract between Colt and Customer and comprises the Order Confirmation (as defined below), an order form, and any service description, service level agreement, any applicable service specific terms and these GTC and any pricing sheet in respect of voice services which the parties agree to include (“Pricing Sheet”). In case of conflict between documents, they shall take precedence in the Order above.

1.2 An Order Confirmation means either (a) a notice from Colt confirming that it accepts the relevant order form, or (b) a notice communicating the expected installation date, (or (c) Colt's acceptance of the order form in accordance with clause 14.6.

1.3 The Order takes effect on the date of Order Confirmation. Any subsequent cancellation or change is only possible as set out in, and subject to, these GTC. Cancellation or change outside of these GTC may lead to early termination charges according to these GTC. Each Service set out on the order form (“Service”) is terminable individually and in its own right. Termination of the whole Order terminates all Services under the Order. Termination of the whole Order terminates all Services under the Order. Unless set out differently in the Order, the initial term in respect of any Service identified on the order form shall be 12 months from (a) the date that the Service is ready for use as communicated by Colt to Customer or (if the case of an Online Order) as set out in clause 14.7 (“RFU Date”) ; (b) the date Customer starts using the Service other than for testing purposes; or (c) the date determined by Colt at its sole discretion following a delay by Customer to provide Delivery Cooperation or failure by Customer to agree the timing of delivery pursuant to clause 6.3 (“Service Initial Term”).

Before expiry of the Service Initial Term, the Service can only be terminated in accordance with clauses 2.1, 6.1, 6.2, 6.3, 9.2, 9.3 or 11.3 of these GTC. On or after expiry of the Service Initial Term, the Order shall continue in force until it is terminated in accordance with any of clauses 2.4, 2.5, 9.1, 9.3, 11.3, 14.7 or 15.2 of these GTC.

1.4 In this Order, “Affiliate” means, in relation to a Party, any entity controlling, controlled by, or under common control with that Party, where “control” means the possession by any person or its nominee(s) directly or indirectly of the power to direct or cause the direction of the management of another person as defined by French Commercial Code and “controlled” and “controlling” shall be construed accordingly.

1.5 Any of the documents referred to in these GTC are available in electronic format (unless a specific format is specified or on paper upon request). The Parties may sign these documents by using an electronic signature. The Parties agree that the electronic signature be legally binding to the Parties and to serve as evidence on the same account as a hand-signed paper document.

1.6 For the duration of the Order Customer shall provide Colt with any reasonable assistance and co-operation necessary for Colt to provide the Service and carry out any necessary maintenance.

2. Charges

2.1 Charges will be set out in the Order; if not, Colt's current standard charges apply. If a third party is needed for the delivery of a Service, the third-party costs, which are incorporated in the charges, are subject to survey of the relevant site or review or confirmation by the third party. Such survey, review or confirmation may result in a change to the costs. Any such change will be passed on to Customer in its entirety as part of the charges and Colt shall notify Customer of any revision to the charges before the Service becomes capable of acceptance. In the case of an increase, Customer may either (a) inform Colt that Customer accepts the increased charges or (b) terminate the Order (or relevant part thereof) by giving Colt notice in compliance with clause 9.5. Following notice of an increase to the charges, Colt shall not be obliged to carry out any further activity in relation to the Order unless and until Customer exercises option (a) above.

2.2 All charges stated on the Order will be exclusive of VAT unless specified otherwise.

2.3 Colt may charge Customer interest on overdue sums at the highest of the two following rates: (i) the annual rate of 5% above the base lending rate of the European Central Bank from time to time and (ii) three times the French legal interest rate, such interest to accrue daily. Customer shall pay Colt a fixed fee as stated in the law and any additional amount incurred by Colt (as evidenced by a receipt) for the recovery of the debt.

2.4 In case of a pricing change for voice services imposed on Colt by another carrier of voice services, Colt may revise any corresponding charges set out on a Pricing Sheet by an equivalent margin to that imposed by such carrier. Such revision will not take effect prior to the date on which the pricing change imposed on Colt takes effect. Notwithstanding the provisions of Article 1220 of the French Civil Code Customer shall be deemed to have accepted the revised charges unless, in case of an increase to monthly recurring charges, Customer has terminated the Order by giving Colt 30 days' written notice. For the avoidance of doubt, Customer shall not have any right to terminate the Order in the case of an increase only to call charges (whether inbound or outbound).

2.5 Colt may revise the charges for the provision of Services agreed in the Order at any time after the expiry of the Service Initial Term providing Customer with 30 days' written notice prior to the revision taking effect. Notwithstanding the provisions of Article 1120 of French Civil Code, Customer shall be deemed to have accepted the revised charges unless, in case of an increase, Customer terminates the affected Order(s) by giving Colt 30 days' written notice of Customers intention do to so.

- 2.6 Charges may be changed at any time in order to comply with any change of mandatory law or regulations which directly affects Colt or any of Colt's third-party suppliers.

3. Payment

- 3.1 Payment shall be due 30 days after the date of invoice.
- 3.2 Colt will send invoices to Customer by email or in an electronic format, unless both parties agree to send invoices by post. The format of the invoice shall not affect Customer's obligation to make payment under clause 3.1 or Colt's rights under clauses 2.3 and 5. Colt shall endeavor to issue invoices as soon as reasonably possible. A failure to issue an invoice or a correct invoice is not and may not be interpreted as a waiver of charges.
- 3.3 Invoices are deemed accepted if not disputed, with detailed evidence of the dispute, within 30 days of the date of the invoice. If disputed, Customer must still pay the undisputed part of the invoice by the due date.
- 3.4 Application of article 1223 of the French Civil Code is expressly excluded.
- 3.5 Colt may limit how much Customer can be in debt to Colt ("Credit Limit"). Colt will inform Customer what Customer's Credit Limit is. Colt may change it from time to time. If Colt has not told Customer what its Credit Limit is, it is nil and all charges must be paid in advance.

4. Fraud

Customer shall not, through acts or omissions, use, or allow third parties to use the Service for any fraudulent or unlawful purposes or against the Colt Acceptable Use Policy ("AUP") published on Colt's website (www.colt.net/legal/terms-and-conditions/). Customer shall ensure there are adequate safeguards in place to prevent fraudulent or unlawful activity, whether arising in connection with Customer's equipment or otherwise. Customer is solely responsible for any fraud that occurs and any charges arising as a result. Colt has no responsibility or liability over the configuration, use or operation of Customer equipment unless Colt has expressly agreed otherwise in writing. Customer shall indemnify Colt and Colt Affiliates against all losses as a result Customer's breach of the AUP.

5. Suspension of Delivery

- 5.1 Colt may, without prejudice to any other right or action Colt might have, suspend the Services: (a) on giving 7 days' prior notice (or longer if required by law) if Customer does not pay an invoice or where disputed the undisputed part thereof, when due or are in breach of any other term of the Order, or (b) immediately if Customer's Credit Limit is exceeded or (c) immediately if Colt reasonably suspects that the Service (or for the same nature of service provided by Colt or any Colt Affiliate to Customer under another order) is being used for fraudulent or unlawful purposes.
- 5.2 Except for the provisions of clause 5.1 c) above and notwithstanding the provisions of Article 1220 of the French Civil Code, no Party may suspend its obligations under this

GTC without evidencing the other Party previous breach of its contract obligations.

6. Delivery

- 6.1 Notwithstanding the provisions of Article 1120 of French Civil Code, the Service will be deemed accepted from the RFU Date or, if earlier, the date Customer starts using the Service other than for testing purposes, unless Customer notifies Colt in writing within 5 working days of the RFU Date of its reasonable belief that the Service is not ready for use. Customer must provide its reasons for that belief.

In this event Colt shall endeavor to resolve the issue and provide an updated RFU Date. The Service will be deemed accepted in accordance with the same process as set out in the preceding sentences. If the Customer notifies Colt in writing on a second occasion (or on any subsequent occasion) of Customer's reasonable belief that the Service is not ready for use then either Party may give notice of termination of the Order (or relevant part thereof) in accordance with clause 9.5.

- 6.2 Customer shall provide Colt, and ensure that any necessary third parties provide Colt, with all co-operation (including all necessary information and access to all sites and associated permissions), necessary for Colt to provide the Services as promised ("Delivery Cooperation"). Colt may require Customer to provide written evidence of Colt's right to access such sites. If the RFU Date is delayed by more than 30 days beyond the issue of a "Task Delay Notification" (which is a Colt system generated email notifying Customer of the delay), due to Customer's failure to provide Delivery Cooperation, then Colt may upon the expiry of such 30 day period (regardless of Customer's inability to use the Service due to such delay) at Colt's sole discretion either terminate the Order or begin the Service Initial Term and start invoicing the charges.
- 6.3 If Colt agrees, using Colt's sole discretion, to defer the delivery of Service upon Customer's request, Service charges shall be charged from the original RFU Date. If Colt is unable or unwilling to comply with such a request, Colt will promptly notify Customer and if agreement is not reached within 5 calendar days of such notification on the timing of delivery and any changes to the charges, then Colt terminate the Order (or relevant part thereof) in accordance with clause 9.5 or begin the Service Initial Term and start invoicing the charges.
- 6.4 Property and title to Colt equipment, or equipment belonging to a third party, installed at Customer's or a third party's site for the provision of Service remains with Colt and Customer shall apply, and shall ensure any such third parties apply reasonable care and comply with any instructions which Colt may issue in relation to it. As a custodian of said equipment, the Customer shall bear for itself and its own customers, the risks relating to the equipment owned by Colt, and/or a third party installed at Customer's or a third party's site for the provision of Service, from the moment of their delivery until the moment they are returned to the owner, in particular in case of deterioration and/or damage of the equipment owned by Colt, and/or a third party. The Customer shall inform Colt without delay of any disappearance, destruction or deterioration affecting all or part of the equipment owned by Colt and/or a third-party owner installed at Customer's or a third party's site. The Customer will take out the necessary insurance to cover any damage caused to said equipment. The Customer will indemnify Colt and Colt's Affiliates for all losses resulting from the use of Colt's and/or the third-party owner's equipment by the Customer, the Customer's end customers or by a third party.

- 6.5 Where Colt equipment is sold, risk shall pass to Customer on delivery. Colt retains property and title until Colt receives full payment of the purchase price.

7. Warranty and Service Levels

- 7.1 Colt warrants that the Service shall be provided in accordance with the Order using reasonable skill and care.
- 7.2 In case of the Service not fulfilling the contractually agreed requirements: Colt shall remedy the Service in accordance with the SLA or, in the absence of an SLA, within a reasonable period and Customer may claim Service credits in accordance with the SLA.
- 7.3 Where Colt equipment is sold to Customer, Colt will pass onto Customer the benefit of any warranty (if any) Colt receives from its supplier of its equipment.
- 7.4 Customer acknowledges that it has been informed and been given the necessary information and recommendations from Colt regarding the performance, quality and the delivery of the Services and therefore correspond to its needs.

8. Intellectual Property

Customer is not granted any intellectual property rights unless otherwise expressly agreed in writing the parties.

9. Termination

- 9.1 Either Party may terminate the Order in whole or in part by giving 90 days' written notice, by a registered letter with acknowledgement of receipt or by email with acknowledgement of receipt, or through the Colt Online Portal, to take effect at the end of the notice period. Customer shall pay all charges applicable until the end of the Service Initial Term.
- 9.2 Upon Customer's request Colt may at its reasonable discretion agree to terminate a Service prior to installation of the Service, provided that the charges applicable until the end of the Service Initial Term shall be paid notwithstanding the earlier termination.
- 9.3 Either Party may terminate the Order in whole or in part immediately by giving notice by a registered letter with acknowledgement of receipt: (a) if the other Party breaches any material term of the Order (including nonpayment of undisputed charges by Customer when due) and, fails to remedy the breach within 30 calendar days following the receipt of the formal notice to do so by a registered letter with acknowledgement of receipt, (b) subject to and within the limits authorized by French law, including article L622-13 of the French Commercial Code, if the other Party is threatened to become insolvent, becomes insolvent or ceases business or (c) in the case of any of the circumstances described in clause 9.4.

- 9.4 The circumstances referred to in clause 9.3 are (a) that any Service has been used, or is being used, for fraudulent purposes; (b) that any other service provided by Colt to Customer or any of Customer's Affiliates under any other order has been used, or is being used, for fraudulent purposes; (c) that Colt reasonably suspects that a Service of similar nature provided by Colt to Customer or any Customer Affiliates under any other order has been used, or is being used, for fraudulent purposes.
- 9.5 Any termination under clauses 2.1, 6.1, 6.2, 6.3 or 11.3 must be notified by the terminating Party to the other Party in writing by a registered letter with acknowledgement of receipt, which shall take effect on the date specified in the termination letter unless a later date is specified.
- 9.6 In the event of a termination by either Party under any of clauses 6.2 or 6.3 Customer shall pay early termination charges comprising of the following: (a) charges which are equal to the fixed charges (one time and recurring) that would have been payable for the first twelve (12) months of the Service Initial Term had the order not been terminated (not including any charges already validly invoiced prior to termination which shall remain payable); and (b) the value of any other third party costs (to the extent that they relate to Services to be provided within the Service Initial Term and after the expiry of such twelve (12) month period) which Colt has already incurred or has committed to as at the date of termination. For the avoidance of doubt, these payment obligations are without prejudice to any claims for damages that either Party may have against the other.
- 9.7 Termination or expiry of part or all of an Order, howsoever caused, will end the Order for the future (no retroactive effect shall be given to termination unless otherwise agreed by both Parties).
- 9.8 The Order can be terminated only based on the provisions of clause 9 here above.

10. Limitation of Liability

- 10.1 Nothing in these GTC shall limit or exclude either party's liability:
- 10.1.1 for any loss caused by the fraudulent act(s) of the other Party;
 - 10.1.2 for death or personal injury caused by its (or its agents') negligence; or
 - 10.1.3 that may not otherwise be limited or excluded by law.
- 10.2 Notwithstanding Customer's obligation to pay all undisputed invoices under clause 3 above, each Party's and their an Affiliates' annual aggregate liability for all claims, losses, expenses or damages arising from breaches of this Order, statutory breaches or otherwise, in a Contractual Year (as defined below) shall be limited to 100% of the charges actually paid to Colt under this Order in that Contractual Year. Contractual Year starts from the date of the Order Confirmation or its anniversary and ends

12 months later (or, if earlier, on the date of expiry or termination of the Order).

10.3 Neither Party shall be liable based on a claim arising out of, or in relation to, these GTC,

10.3.1 for any (i) loss of profits; (ii) loss of revenue; (iii) loss of anticipated savings; (iv) loss of business opportunity; (v) loss of goodwill or injury to reputation; (vi) or loss of, damage to or corruption of data; or

10.3.2 for any indirect loss.

10.3.3 For the avoidance of doubt nothing in the foregoing shall impede or limit Customer's obligation to pay undisputed invoices under clause 3 above.

10.4 Service credits shall be Customer's sole remedy for a breach of the SLA and must be considered as penalties within the meaning of Article 1231-5 of the French Civil Code.

10.5 The limitations and exclusions in this clause 10 shall apply regardless of whether either Party had been made aware of the possibility of the relevant loss.

10.6 Customer shall reimburse Colt for all additional costs (including repair costs) that Colt and its Affiliates may incur due to any delay or omission in the fulfilment of Customer obligations or responsibilities. Colt may invoice the Customer for any such costs incurred if Colt provides a record of the relevant failures.

10.7 The Parties acknowledge and accept that their obligations (including any limitation or exclusion applicable to them) are defined in consideration of the economic balance of the Order.

11. Force Majeure

11.1 "Force Majeure" event means, any event beyond the reasonable control of the Parties as per Article 1218 of the French Civil Code, including (but not limited to), the following events and related events arising out of any of them: fire, flood, unusually severe weather, war, warlike circumstances, action of civil or military authority, terrorist acts, an epidemic or a pandemic, strikes, lockouts, fiber and/or cable cuts (including time taken to repair it), power outages and/or electrical disturbances on networks, any law made or any action taken by a government action or a public authority.

11.2 Neither Party shall be liable for any Force Majeure event.

11.3 If either Party is prevented, hindered or delayed from or in performing any of its obligations under this Order by a Force Majeure event, such obligation will be suspended while the Force Majeure event continues and neither Party will be deemed to be in breach of such obligations.

11.4 If the Force Majeure event affects a party's ability to meet its obligations for more than 30 consecutive days, then either Party shall be entitled to terminate the affected Service(s) immediately upon written notice.

12. Data Protection

12.1 In this Paragraph 12:

12.1.1 "Data Controller" (or simply "Controller") and "Data Processor" (or simply "Processor") and Data Subject have the meanings given to those terms under the Data Protection Laws.

12.1.2 "Data Protection Laws" means:

all laws and regulations of the European Union relating to Personal Data, including but not limited to the General Data Protection Regulation (EU 2016/679) (GDPR) and any other applicable law, in particular Act no. 78-17 of January 6, 1978, as subsequently amended, its implementation decrees, and any deliberations adopted by the CNIL and the CNIL's practices (the "CNIL", the French Data Protection Authority) and all applicable law; and data protection laws and regulations, as amended from time to time and as developed by any local regulation..

12.1.3 "Personal Data" means any information relating to an identified or identifiable natural person ('data subject'); an identifiable natural person is one who can be identified, directly or indirectly, in particular by reference to an identifier such as a name, an identification number, location data, an online identifier or to one or more factors specific to the physical, physiological, genetic, mental, economic, cultural or social identity of that natural person;

12.1.4 Capitalised terms not defined in this clause 12 shall have the meaning given in Data Protection Laws.

12.2 The parties agree that for any Personal Data processed by either Party in connection with these GTCs, such as the contact information of each Party employees or contractors or any Personal Data of the signatories of the Order Form and any contact persons or other Personal Data provided by the Customer and Colt to execute the Order, each Party is an independent Data Controller and will comply with their respective obligations under the Data Protection Laws. Colt Technology Services SAS RCS Nanterre 402 628 838, therefore hereby informs that it may process the Personal Data of the signatories of the Order Form and any contact persons or other Personal Data provided by the Customer as controller of the mentioned data.

12.3 Each Party shall comply with the requirements of Data Protection Laws applicable to Data Controllers in respect of the provision of the Services and otherwise in connection with these GTC and shall not knowingly do anything or permit anything to be done which might lead to a breach by the other Party of Data Protection Laws.

12.4 The legal basis for Colt's processing Personal Data shall be the contractual obligations and the legitimate interest arisen in these GTC to provide the Services. Colt as Data Controller will process Personal Data for the purposes of maintaining and managing the contractual relationship with the Customer, including the performance of quality controls and the provision of training where appropriate. Colt may transfer Personal Data or make Personal Data

12.5 Colt may transfer Personal Data or make Personal Data accessible within and outside the EEA to its affiliates, agents and subcontractors. A list of Colt companies and branches can be found at www.colt.net/legal/. These transfers are made in compliance with Data Protection Laws and EDPB Recommendations 01/2020 on measures that supplement transfer tools to ensure compliance with the EU level of protection of Personal Data. The transfers within Colt Group are carried out by means of its Binding Corporate Rules (BCRs) which are published on Approved Binding Corporate Rules | European Data Protection Board (https://edpb.europa.eu/our-work-tools/accountability-tools/bcr_en). The transfers outside of Colt Group are carried out on the basis of an adequacy decision of the European Union or, failing that, on the basis of appropriate safeguards as the Standard contractual clauses for international transfers to third countries and, where applicable, supplementary security measures.

12.6 Personal Data will be processed for the duration of the contractual relationship with the Customer, and in particular for the duration of the Order, notwithstanding the storage that may be necessary after expiry of the contractual relationship for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims and/or as permitted by applicable law.

12.7 Data Subjects may exercise their data protection individual rights via email to jgdpr@colt.net, with a copy of a document of identification for security purposes and outlining the right which they wish to exercise. In addition, Data Subjects can refer to Colt's Data Protection Officer who can be contacted at dpo@colt.net for any query related to the processing of the referred Personal Data by Colt.

12.8 If Colt has access to Personal Data of third parties related to the Customer, the Customer undertakes to have informed and obtained the consent of those third parties to have their data used by Colt for the purposes set out above and to inform them of their ability to exercise their rights.

12.9 Data Subjects may also file a complaint before the relevant Supervisory Authority.

12.10 More information on the use and processing of Personal Data by Colt, is available at (www.colt.net/legal/data-privacy/).

12.11 If Colt processes Customer's Personal Data as Data Processor following the instructions of the Customer regarding the purpose and the means of such processing, Colt will be considered Data Processor and shall follow the instructions provided by the Data Controller detailed in a data processing agreement executed between the Parties.

13. Confidentiality

13.1 "Information" means any information, prices, data, practical know-how and documentation which receiving Party receives from disclosing Party (including during pre-contractual negotiations) except that which: (a) is in the public domain, and/or (b) was contained in documents rightfully known to receiving Party prior to receiving same from disclosing Party, and/or (c) receiving Party lawfully received from a third party without that third Party's breach of agreement.

13.2 Receiving Party shall not disclose, or permit access to, any portion of the Information to any person except: (a) if such person is an agent, sub-contractor, affiliate, auditor, professional advisor of receiving Party and has a reasonable need to know the Information and such person is legally bound by similar confidentiality provisions to those contained in these GTC, or (b) if necessary to comply with legal or regulatory obligations.

13.3 This clause 13 shall continue to apply for a period of 5 years after expiry or termination of the Order.

14. Online Service Portal and APIs

Service Portal

14.1 Any provision of Service and/or sale of equipment available for order through any automated online self-service Colt portal contracting platform shall be defined in these GTC as the "Service Portal" and the applicable Order placed through the Service Portal shall be defined in these GTC as the "Online Order". This clause 14 applies only where the Order is an Online Order. In case of any conflict with the rest of these GTC, this clause 14 prevails over the rest of these GTC only to the extent of such conflict.

User Access

14.2 Colt has provided Customer with a master login account to the Service Portal to allow Customer to manage its Services in the Service Portal. The Service Portal may provide functionality allowing Customer to create sub-accounts for more granular management of Services.

14.3 Customer is responsible for all activities carried out on the Service Portal under login credentials associated with it.

14.4 Customer is responsible for ensuring that the persons whose details are inserted in the Service Portal registration form ("Portal Authorized Users") are legally authorised to act as a user of the Service Portal on Customer's behalf and that they have the authority to legally bind Customer.

14.5 Customer is responsible for maintaining the confidentiality of the Service Portal account and password and for restricting access to its computer, and Customer agrees to accept responsibility for all activities that occur under its account or password. Colt reserves the right to refuse service, terminate accounts, remove or edit content in at sole discretion.

Online Order and Term

14.6 This Online Order takes effect from the Order Confirmation. The Order Confirmation is when Customer clicks an "I Accept" button or checks a box indicating acceptance of these GTC in the Service Portal or, if earlier, when Customer uses any of the Services and will be in force for the duration of the Order, as described in clause 14.7, or an electronic mail notice from Colt confirming that it accepts the relevant Online Order or any other electronic means that enables it to effectively communicate the acceptance of the Online Order to Customer.

14.7 The Online Order takes effect on the date of Order Confirmation. Unless stipulated differently in the Online Order, the Service Initial Term will be the one described in the Order Confirmation, starting from the RFU Date (being some minutes after the Order Confirmation). For any Service described in the Order as "flexible", no Service Initial Term will be applicable, and therefore the applicable Service will end when Customer terminates the Service by clicking a termination button in the Service Portal, with immediate effect (unless otherwise terminated in accordance with these GTC).

Charges

14.8 Charges for each Service are shown in the Service Portal and the specific pricing for each Order will be shown in the Order Confirmation.

14.9 Charging is either on a per usage basis or for a set billing period. Where a Service commences during a calendar related billing period, charges for that period will be pro-rated or per unit as detailed in the Service description.

APIs

14.10 Customer agrees that by accessing or using any application programming interface offered by Colt ("API"), it will enter a legally binding contract with Colt. Customer acknowledges and agrees that access or usage of any API will be governed by the "Colt API Terms" which are available upon Customer's request or at www.colt.net/CCP/API.

14.11 Such contract regarding access or usage of APIs will be entered into by the Colt Affiliate that has agreed to accept an Order from Customer. Customer represents and warrants that it has full legal authority to enter into an agreement accessing or using an API with Colt and is entitled to do so on behalf of such entity and may bind it to the Colt API Terms. If Customer is not authorised to do so it may not access or use any API.

15. Miscellaneous

15.1 Any written notice given in connection with an Order shall be served in writing, either by hand, or normal letter or registered letter with acknowledgement of receipt, or fax or electronic transmission (including by e-mail). Colt is committed to acting in a sustainable manner. Colt's preference is to use electronic communications including e-signature of the Order itself and usage of its online portals wherever they are available.

15.2 Each party shall comply with national equality and human rights legislations and ensure that it maintains policies to ensure non-discrimination against individuals based, on, but not limited to, their gender, gender identity, marital status, family status, age, disability, sexual orientation, race, ethnic origins and religion.

15.3 Each Party warrants that it is not involved in any activity or it has not committed any act that could be considered as a violation of any regulation which goal is to prevent and/or repress bribery, corruption or money laundering and terrorism financing in any jurisdiction in which it carries on its business activities. Each Party has taken and will take at any time any appropriate measures, including the implementation of appropriate control measures, to ensure, such compliance by each of its members and employees. Failure to comply with these obligations or should either Party receive any complaint for failure to comply with these obligations will entitle Colt to terminate the Order. The termination will be effective immediately upon notice.

15.4 Each Party warrants that:

15.4.1 each of its Affiliates will comply with all applicable environmental laws including obtaining and maintaining during the term of this Order, all material approvals, authorization, certificates, consents, licenses, orders and permits or other similar authorizations of all governmental authorities, or from any other person, that are required under such applicable environmental laws.

15.4.2 agree to use commercially reasonable efforts, and to cooperate in good faith with the other party to achieve its commitment to comprehensive science-based emissions reduction targets, approved by the Science-Based Targets Initiative (SBTi);

15.4.3 have not received written notice of material violation of environmental law and will maintain the relevant ISO accreditations and will duly inform the other party in writing if there is any change in such ISO certifications.

15.5 Notwithstanding the provisions of article 1222 of the French Civil Code, If one of the Parties (the "Defaulting Party") fails to fulfil its contractual obligations for any reason whatsoever (including force majeure), the other Party shall not enforce such obligation by any third party without the prior and express consent of the Defaulting Party. No reimbursement of expenses or advances may be requested from the Defaulting Party in this capacity without its prior written consent.

- 15.6 Article 1195 of the Civil Code applies to the exclusion of the recourse to the judge provided for in paragraph 2 of Article 1195 of the Civil Code.
- 15.7 Customer authorizes Colt to assign all or any of its rights and obligations under an Order. Notwithstanding the provisions of article 1216-1 of the French Civil Code, from the assignment date Colt shall not be held jointly and severally liable for the performance of the Services by the assignee.
- 15.8 Customer authorizes and hereby consents, Colt to sub-contract to any Colt Group Affiliate(s) and/or to third parties, all or part of the Services, for the purpose of the execution of the Order. It being understood that Colt can rely on other third-party operator ("OLO") for the purpose of the delivery of the Services.
- 15.9 These GTC may be modified only upon mutual and properly documented agreement of both Parties

15.10 APPLICABLE LAW- COMPETENT JURISDICTION:
THESE GTC SHALL BE GOVERNED BY THE LAWS OF FRANCE. THE PARTIES CONSENT TO THE SOLE COMPETENCE OF THE JURISDICTION OF THE COMMERCIAL COURTS OF NANTERRE.
